The sizes are small and medium only. The skirts are somewhat, but not extremely, narrow, and the coats are on straight lines, trimmed with fur.

If you are in need of a cheap suit for everyday use, this is an opportunity worth investigating.

REALTY RECORD SET FOR NOVEMBER SALES

Transactions Total 581, Involving 1,581
Parcels—$4,600,000 Invested.

During the month just closed realty brokers completed 581 deals, in which 1,581 parcels of real estate were involved thus setting a new realty trading record for November in Washington. Business for November surpassed all previous transactions, both in volume and in the total invested for the corresponding period in the history of the city.

The total invested in the loans on and purchase of real estate in the past month was $4,600,000. The past month shows an advance in investments of $250,000 over the previous high mark for November.

Considering that there were but five working days in the past week on account of Thanksgiving Day, brokers made an excellent showing, concluding 10 sales, only five sales less than in the previous week.

Perhaps the most expensive property sold during the closing days of November was 121 New York avenue northwest. Joseph E. Willard purchased the building from Thomas B. Love. The consideration was not stated, but the transfer was subject to an encumbrance of $60,000.

Premises 715 and 715 Ninth street northwest were sold by Charles W. Conley to Lawrence W. Selig. The price was not made public, but the purchaser gave a deferred purchase money trust for $40,000, payable in three years.

Cardinal Gibbons added to his real estate holdings for church purposes when he acquired premises 1413 V street northwest, near the Convent of Perpetual Adoration.

The short week was felt in the loan market, where a decline of more than $50,000 was shown in a comparison with the business of the preceding week. The loans of the past week totaled $38,780.60. This sum was borrowed on the security of 208 lots at an average interest rate of 5.7 per cent.

VAN SCHAICK UPHOLDS LODGING HOUSE SITE

President of Board of Education Raps Citizens Who Urge Another Location.

That the location of the new Municipal Lodging House near his home in Massachusetts avenue between Fourteenth and Fifteenth streets northwest would be appropriate and not objectionable to him, was the statement made by Rev. Van Schaick, Jr., president of the Board of Education, at the public hearing yesterday before the Commissioners on the scores of protests made by property owners against the location of the lodging house at 22-324 C street northwest.

"There appears to be a tendency of residents of Washington to protest against the establishment of any municipal institution in their neighborhood," Dr. Van Schaick said.

Protest against the site was made by John B. Lerner, representing the Young Women's Christian Home. Mr. Lerner spoke of the danger which might result to young women returning to their home at night by the location in the neighborhood of an institution which cared for such inmates.

Rev. Harry D. Mitchell said that the lodging house would blight the future of that section and that the paragonage of the Metropolitan Memorial M. E. Church would probably be abandoned unless another site was selected.

The Commissioners will take the protests under advisement.

POTOMAC PARK FERRY ADVOCATED BY BAKER

A ferry to provide better facilities for the public in reaching East Potomac Park has been asked for in estimates prepared by the War Department for Congress.

It is planned to expend $1,000,000 in providing a great recreation park for Washington which will contain tennis courts, baseball diamonds, a mammoth stadium, swimming pools, and a boating canal.

The improvements made thus far in East Potomac Park consist of a drive around the outer edge and some planting in the center.

BURLESON TO ADDRESS CIVIL SERVICE LEAGUE

Officers of the National Civil Service Reform League were authorized yesterday to announce that Postmaster-General Burleson would speak at the meeting of the league on Tuesday evening in New Haven, Conn.

During the campaign the Postmaster-General apparently offered to give the league access to the records in regard to the appointments of some 37,000 fourth-class postmasters. The league sent a letter to Mr. Burleson asking for permission to examine the records, but no reply was received. Apparently the Postmaster-General had planned to make his reply in person.

QUITS HER PROFESSION TO AID SUFFRAGE CAUSE

From research work in Japanese prints and Chinese porcelains to street speaking for the Woman's party was the leap which Miss Mildred Gilbert, of California, made a few weeks before election. She is now in Washington to assist in the organization and lobby work which the Congressional Union for woman suffrage will carry on during the coming session of Congress.

Miss Gilbert, a graduate of Leland Stanford University, was engaged in her profession as an expert interior decorator, but resigned her position about six weeks before election to take part in the Woman's party campaign. She worked in California. After meeting Miss Doris Stevens, national organization chairman of the Congressional Union, in San Francisco, Miss Gilbert became convinced that "Federal woman suffrage was a burning issue which should be decided promptly and rightly."

NEWSPAPER ADVERTISING BY LUMBER MEN URGED

Chicago, Ill., Dec. 2.—Newspaper advertising by retail lumber dealers in their home communities is strongly advocated by E. A. Sterling, manager of the Trade Extension department of the National Lumber Manufacturers Association. In a pamphlet for lumber dealers, devoted entirely to the problem of newspaper advertising, he says:

"It is no longer possible to say that the advertising of wood is not necessary because lumber is a staple product. Lumber sales have declined because of lack of advertising, and competitive products have unquestionably been sold as the result of educational publicity and advertising."

To break up a Cold, you don't have to follow the old traditions; a hot foot bath, a hot lemonade, hot flaxseed tea, a brisk purge, a menthol oil spray, a cold compress on the neck, an alcohol rubdown.

The easy and quick way to break up a Cold is to take "Seventy-seven" at the first sneeze or shiver.

If you wait until your bones begin to ache, it will take longer. All drug stores, 25c. or mailed.
